

Collage Character

Creating a Collage Character

In this lesson, you will use your hands to create the shapes and details to make the head of a collage character.

You will need:

A few different sheets of paper

Glue or tape

Creating a Collage Character: Making Shapes

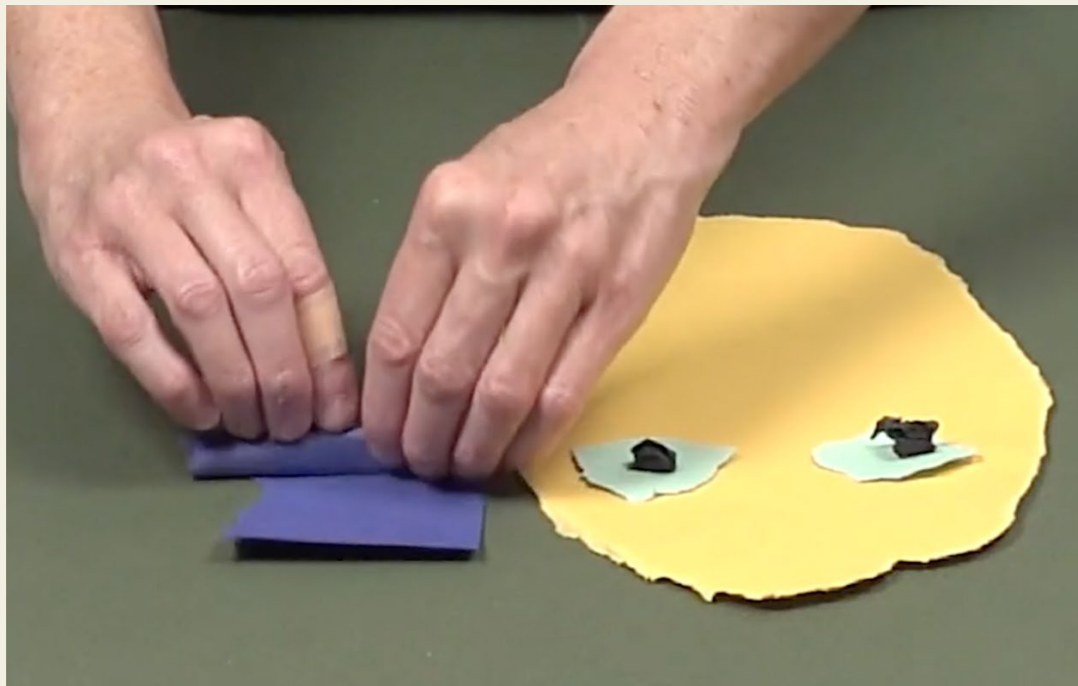

Let's tear a shape to create the head.

What shapes will you make for the eyes, nose and mouth?

Will your paper be flat or stand up?

Creating a Collage Character: Adding Details

What other details will you add?

Teeth

Lips

Ears

Eyes

Pupils

Eyebrows

Eyelashes

Hair

You can arrange and rearrange many times before you decide to glue your shapes.

Creating a Collage Character: Arranging Features

Arrange your shapes to create a face.

Try rearranging your pieces to show different feelings.

How did you change the paper to make a face?

What parts are flat and what parts stand up?

Remote Arts Learning Partnership

Module One

Studio in a School NYC Team

Julie Applebaum, Senior Director

Remote Arts Learning Partnership Project Director

Writing Team

Belinda Blum Bryan Melillo

Cynthia Chen Traci Talasco

Project Team

Belinda Blum Nicola Giardina Sassy Kohlmeyer

Andrea Burgay Katherine Huala Paul Urevitch

Graphic Design

Don Giordano

NYC Department of Education OASP Team

Karen Rosner, Director of Visual Arts

Amber Lodman, Arts Program Manager

Kaitlin Trammell, Remote Arts Learning Partnership Project Coordinator

These educational materials were created through a partnership with Studio in a School NYC and The New York City Department of Education Office of Arts and Special Projects (OASP) and made possible by the generosity of The New York Community Trust.

Copyright © 2021 Studio in a School NYC LLC